SMITH

I am trying to locate the burial place of Earl Smith, s/o Jacob and Ada Curtis Smith. The Shaddy Cemetery records show that Earl is buried there and that there should be a flat stone marking the grave. I have been unable to find the burial plot or the marker. Does anyone have information about the date and place of death of Jacob Smith or his daughter Eunice. Eunice would have been born and died between Oct. 1904 and the 1910 census. Jacob was also the father of Alfred who was born March 9, 1909. Jacob was not listed on the 1910 census.

WALKER; DOWDEN; TUCKER; HELSLEY
I am trying to discover more information about my Walker family heritage because so very little is known. This Walker family spent a great deal of time moving from place to place, therefore it may be hard to keep up. Beginning with Garner Mack Conco Waker (1829-1906) and his first wife Jane Dowden (--)1872 were born in TN. Nothing else is known about her. Apparently the family moved back and forth between Jefferson County IL and White County TN as their children's birthplaces seem to indicate. Their children were Amanda, George, W. S. "Doc", Robert, Freeman, Mary, Charles and Susan. By 1879 the family settled to stay in Van Buren Township, Wright County MO. Robert Lewis Walker married Florence Tucker, possibly born in Jefferson County IL. Nothing is known about this Tucker line. I have information about Robert's life in Wright County, but the Walker and Tucker families in TN and IL are lost to this line of the family. Can you help me?

Any information as to where they lived, the births of their children, or of their second child's (Ida or Alice) death around 1887 would be greatly appreciated. One article about my great-grandfather said a town was named after him. Is there any record of this? Chris left in 1889 to make the run into Oklahoma. He returned for his family a few months later. Chris and Louisa were both immigrants from Switzerland. Some of Louisa's family immigrated with her. Is there any record of the Neser family?

BROWN; MOORE
I am searching for information about the parents of my grandmother, Hattie Ann Brown (Feb. 2, 1888 Mansfield, MO). The only information I have so far shows that her father was George Washington Brown (Feb. 1857). He was born in Gasconade, MO and I do not know if this was a town or county. Hattie's mother was Martha Jane Moore born in Mansfield. The 1900 census shows a new wife, Melinda M. (1870). There are three siblings: Samuel R. (Oct. 1889), Harley L. (July 1895) and Cora A. (June 1898). The census indicates that George was a section foreman, which leads us to believe he worked for the railroad. Does anyone know anything about any of these people? I am especially interested in Martha Jane Moore, who her parents were, etc. Also, does anyone know of any history books that talk about the building of the railroad in that part of the country around the turn of the century?
