TICKET REQUEST FORM

Please mail this completed form to

Ripley Main Street Association
Attention: Melinda Marsalis
111 E. Spring Street
Ripley, MS 38663

_____
NAME (please print)

_____
MAILING ADDRESS

_____
CITY STATE

_____
EMAIL ADDRESS

_____
PHONE

I would like to purchase the following:
(please check all that apply)

- ❑ Box lunch for Saturday, November 9 lecture featuring keynote speaker Jack Elliott _____ number of $10 tickets requested

- ❑ Dinner with performance by John Maxwell on Saturday, November 9 at Rainey Estate.

  _____ number of $40 tickets requested (limited tickets available)

RIPLEY MAIN STREET

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Contact Melinda Marsalis or Libbi Bryant

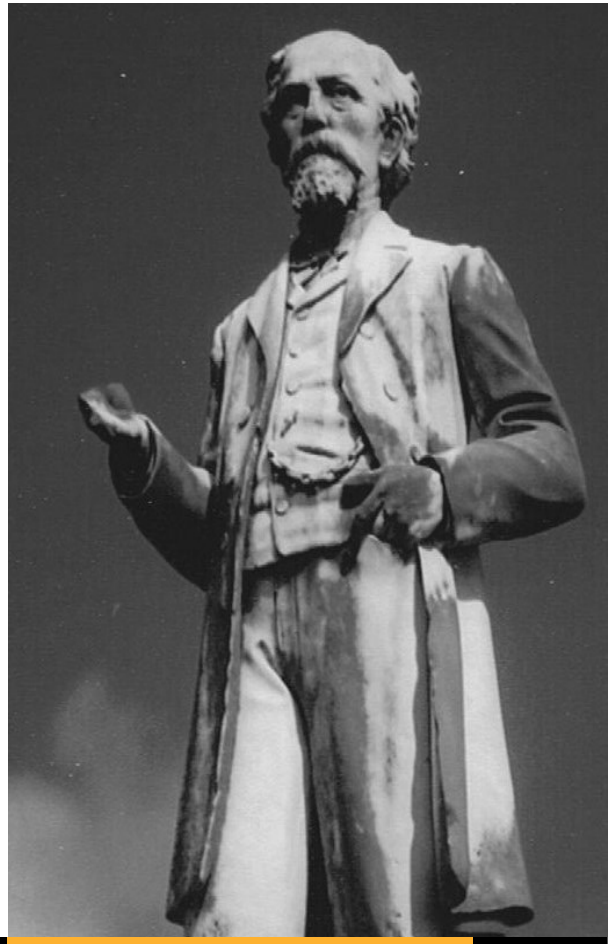
ripleymainstreet@dixie-net.com

RIPLEY MAIN STREET ASSOCIATION

111 East Spring Street
Ripley, MS 38663
662-512-0226



WILLIAM FAULKNER HERITAGE FESTIVAL 2013

NOVEMBER 8 & 9
Ripley, MS

A Celebration of William Faulkner's
Tippah County Heritage

FESTIVAL SCHEDULE

FRIDAY
NOVEMBER 8

6:30p FAULKNER ON FILM
The festival begins with a showing of the film adapation of William Faulkner's The Long Hot Summer at the Dixie Theater. 106 South Main Street, Ripley, MS

8:30p RECEPTION
Stroll down Main Street to the Square for a reception hosted by the Ripley Main Street Association. 111 East Spring Street, Ripley, MS

SATURDAY
NOVEMBER 9

8:30a REGISTRATION
Includes orientation and tour of the Ripley Public Library Fa(u)lkner collection.
308 North Commerce, Ripley, MS

10a MUSEUM TOUR
Tour of the Tippah County Museum (106 North Siddall Street) followed by a self-guided tour of Hindman Cemetery (follow the signs to the intersection of Highway 4 and Dumas Road)

11:30a LUNCH
Box lunch and lecture by Jack D. Elliott, Jr., historical archeologist, entitled A Place to Remember: Ripley and Faulkner. Ripley First United Methodist Church, 302 South Main Street, Ripley, MS

1p GUIDED SPIRIT TOUR
Hosted by honor students from Ripley High School at Ripley Cemetery on Highway 15N (behind Pizza Hut)

2p HISTORIC DISTRICT WALKING TOUR
Join with author, storyteller, and amateur historian Bruce Smith as he tells the story of Colonel William Clark Falkners extraordinary life and sensational death on the west side of the Tippah County Courthouse.

"OH, MR. FAULKNER, DO YOU WRITE?"

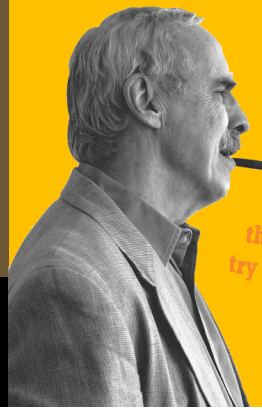
You are invited to an evening of William Faulkner

Saturday, November 9
6:00 p.m.

Join us for a catered buffet dinner and live jazz music at the famous Paul J. Rainey Estate near Cotton Plant, MS on Highway 15 between Ripley and New Albany.

Dinner will be followed by John Maxwell's presentation of Oh, Mr. Faulkner, Do You Write?, the internationally acclaimed, highly entertaining and provocative portrait of Mississippi's award-winning author.

$40 (limited seating)



"To understand the world, you must first try and understand a place like Mississippi."