ALLEE

I am looking for any info on my Allee Family and their grave site. I have looked through every cemetery you have listed and don't find them. Dewey Clarence Allee b. 26 Jan 1900 d. March 1983 ss shows Mineral Springs, Howard County, AR. Juanita Katherine Allee (Hines) b. 27 Jul 1919 Dallas, Dallas, Texas d. Jan 1984 ss shows Nashville, Howard County, Ar. Richard Wayne Allee b. 19 Jan 1959 Dallas, Dallas, Texas d. Sept 1978 ss shows Nashville, Howard County, Ar. Richard was only 19 at death. He was a passenger along with 2 or 3 of his friends in a pickup truck that rowed over on their way back home that night from I believe Hope, AR. in September 1978. All the other boys lived. So there could have been a write up in the paper about the accident he was a very poplar young man. Burial was right off a main two way busy street out of town that I can remember. Dewey and Juanita worked and lived on Chicken farms in the area. One son last known lived in the area 1999 Ronnie Lee Allee. Genealogy shows he lived there until 2002.

WESTBROOKS

I am searching for information on the location of the grave of Allen T. Westbrooks. He was the father of HJ Westbrooks who is buried in Fellowship cemetery. Allen T. Westbrooks is mentioned in Howard County Heritage as being an early settler in that area, circa the 1830's. I find in census records that he came to Lamar County Texas in 1860 with his wife, sons, and son James W. Westbrooks. I do not find him in any census record after that. Any information would be appreciated.

WEBB/CHANDLER

In researching my family I believe that John Webb buried in the County Line cemetery was married to Narcissus Chandler b. Nov. 18, 1846 and died Nov. 28, 1879. The way it is listed, the Chandler below John Webb looks like a new person, and I don't know what the 33 yrs 10 days Civil War looking entry on the same line would be as Narcissus died fairly young and I don't think served in the Civil War ;) . I don't know who that entry belongs to. Would it be part of John D. Franklin's broken stone? He and his wife Elizabeth are somehow related to John Webb, as he and his children are living with and next to John and Elizabeth after Narcissus died, and John's children are listed as "nephews". Is part of the broken stone Elizabeth's marker? I can't seem to find Elizabeth Franklin. I found out John Webb's son Henry's wife Mary McInturff's parents are the GN (Gasper Nathaniel) and Martha McInturff buried in the same side as John Webb and John Franklin. Their sons (Mary's brothers) are buried nearby. I wonder if John Franklin's Civil War service from Arkansas, and possibly his wife Elizabeth are mentioned on the part of his stone that is broken....

WRIGHT

I would like to know the name and cemetery where the wife of Banks WRIGHT is buried. Banks Wright is listed in the 1880 Howard County census as a widower. He had a son Samuel W. Wright born in Arkansas in December 1876 so his wife must have died in the late 1870s. I do know know the wife's first name but suspect she was born between 1840 and 1855 and so died between 1876 and 1880. WATSON

I am looking for information on Margaret Elizabeth Watson who married Thomas J. Keener in Howard Co. AR 21 Nov 1878. Apparently he died and she then married William J. Henry. William and Margaret E. are buried in the Henry Cemetery in Howard Co. AR. She also had a sister Amanda Caroline Watson who married George W. Keener 2 Jul 1884 in Howard Co. AR. She and George later went to Stratford OK. I would appreciate any info on these families. I am researching the Watson line. Most of my Watson's were descended from Wimberly Fredrick Watson who was in Howard Co. AR for a number of years and is buried in the Old Liberty Cemetery north of Dierks, AR in unmarked graves

EDMUND/EDMOND/ROGERS/RODGERS/MARTIN

Edmund Rogers Martin may have been born on October 18, 1838 in Spartanburg, South Carolina . The 1900 Census lists his birth date as August, 1838. The 1880 U.S. Census lists his state of birth as Mississippi, and suggests a possible year of birth of 1840-1841, but the 1870 and 1900 Censuses list his state of birth as South Carolina. In January, 1869, Edmund Rogers Martin, at age of 29, married Emily (also known as Emma) Frances Cook, age 15 (born April 13, 1853 , or perhaps in April 1854), presumptively in Arkansas. In 1870 he was a farmer in Saline Township in Sevier County, and his personal estate was valued at $200. In 1880 and 1900 he lived in Mineral Springs Township, Howard County, where their oldest child, William Cook Martin, may have been born . Edmund and Emily had eleven children altogether: William Cook ~, Mabelle/Mable "Belle"~, Inez~, Frances Elizabeth "Fannie" ~, John Earnest "Earn" ~, Tabitha

"Tabbie" ~, Emma ~, Pearl ~, Edgar/Edward Berry ~, James Lewis ~, and Female ~. In 1900 Edmund Rogers Martin was a merchant who owned a farm, free of any mortgage. The year after he died, Emily Frances Cook Martin became owner of the farm, and her son John Earnest Martin was a farmer there, with Emma and Tabitha still living at home.

MILLER

My Great Grandfather died in a sawmill accident near Athens. No one seems to know where he is buried. He died on Oct 22, 1913. His name was Levis Benton Miller, But I do not know what name he went by, my Dad and his cousin Cleta both refer to him as Grandpa Ben. After he died, one of his son's, "Judge" Miller, took over his job to support the family, until they re-located to Oklahoma. Can any one help me?

HARDIN/ROBINS

I need some help real bad. I have been searching for William Henry Hardin and/or Zeliby Robins (Purcell) for over four years and I am stuck. They are my maternal grandparents and I know that they were married in Howard County in 1908 because I got a copy of the marriage license from my sister. It states that he was from Buck Range and that she was from Horne. I know when and where they died and are buried but I cant find out about their births or parents. If anyone can help with any info I would be eternally grateful. Thanking you in advance. And please somebody help me.

REESE/WEIR

My gggrandfather, William Watt Reese; ggrandfather: Thomas Jefferson Reese; and grandfather: William Weir Reese all lived, for a time, in Center Point, Arkansas. Also, my father, Oscar Blake Reese was born in Center Point, even though I believe my grandparents were just visiting in Center Point at the time of Oscar's birth. Is there anyone with knowledge of my family in Center Point? Also, my great grandmother was Sarah Jane Weir, who married Thomas Jefferson Reese. Did they marry in Howard County? Anyone know where her family was living at the time of their marriage? They were married on July 12, 1881-but WHERE were they married? Thomas Jefferson and Sarah Jane are both buried in Hayworth, Okla. He died on June 10, 1922; she on July 20, 1920. Hope this isn't too rambling. Thanks to anyone who can be of assistance. 4123 Columbia Falls Stage Road, Columbia Falls, MT 59912

DORSEY/RILEY/FERGUSON/SHIRMER

I would be very interested in corresponding with any descendants of John H. Dorsey (c. 1825) and his wife Sarah Riley . They are first found in Howard County in the 1860 census. They came to Howard County from near Walhala, SC which is now in Oconee County but was then in Pickens County. Sarah's parents were Daniel and Gillian Riley. I have found family members and descendants in Beaver Township in the 1910 census. Children of John and Sarah were William O (c. 1850, NC), Johanna (c. 1855, NC, married Ferguson), Daniel (c. 1856, TX), Martha (c. 1857, TX), Sallie (September 1862, AK), Mandy (c. December 1865, AK, married Jacob Shirmer), and John (November 1875, AK.)

OWENS

I am searching for parent and sibling information of Nancy Jane Owens b. about 1848 in Centerpoint, Arkansas. Her mother's name was Emma, maiden name unknown. Emma ? Owens is buried in a Centerpoint cemetery. Nancy Jane married ~ ~ Mr. Hill about 1864 in Howard County, Arkansas. They relocated to Tennessee where their five children were born between 1865 and 1874. We have no info on Mr. Hill. We think he may have died between 1874 and 1878 in Tennessee. Nancy Jane married ~ ~ John Henry Cranfill (1878 in Tennessee) and they raised their family of six children in Howard County, Arkansas. Does this fit in with any information that you may have on Owens or Hills ???
