OAKLANDS/WOODLAWN CEMETERY

(One short block north of 10th Street via Orange Avenue before the railroad crossing, is brick surfaced 10th Way. At the end of this are wrought iron gates which lead to the cemetery.)

The first burial was on 10 April 1905. Woodlawn (also known as Pepper Hill) is part of Oaklands Cemetery. It covers about three tenths of an acre and was deeded by the Florida Mortgage and Investment Company to a group of black residents as trustees.
