

ST. PETERSBURG CITY DIRECTORY, 1912
Including Tarpon Springs

This is the eighth edition of the Times City Directory for St. Petersburg, Florida, a publication of The St. Petersburg Times. Edie Kirk, transcriber; Allan Hammell and David Dellinger, proofreaders. The directory that was transcribed is the property of the Heritage Village Archives & Library of Pinellas County, Florida located in Largo, Florida.

This material has been reproduced as closely as practicable to the original. Spelling has not been corrected although a few minor punctuation errors have been corrected. Some of the names were not in alphabetical order, for instance, children's given names are not in alphabetical sequence with the father's given name. In a few cases, where alphabetical order of surnames was incorrect due to what appeared to be a typesetter's error, the order was corrected. Some non-alphabetical entries may still remain.
