

Saturday, March 8, 2008
GENEALOGY SEMINAR

Sponsored by TREASURE COAST GENEALOGICAL SOCIETY

Speaker: Pam Cooper,
Indian River County Library Genealogy Librarian

Pam has been the supervisor of the Florida History and Genealogy Department for the Indian River County Main Library since 1986. Pam is a teacher and lecturer on genealogy at local, state and national levels and has been a genealogist since 1977. At the National Genealogical Society conference in May of 2000, she received the Filby Prize for Genealogical Librarianship.

9 am TO 3 pm (8:30 Registration)
Trinity Evangelical Presbyterian Church
5150 Oleander Avenue

(Just south of Midway Road, across from White City Elementary School)

Four Great Topics for the beginner and the experienced genealogist!

Timing Is Everything: How to pinpoint your ancestors by making a timeline and see where they fit in history

Border to Border: Statewide resources and indexes to use in your ancestor hunt

Church Records: Pray that you can find an ancestor's church, and better yet, the church records.

Hidden Resources: Underused, unheard of and not-so-new records, or where you have NOT looked for ancestors.

Please bring a brown-bag lunch. TCGS will supply drinks and desserts.

For more information, contact Pat Giordano at 772-465-4164; tcsociety@gmail.com or Linda Hudson at 772-467-1246

Please detach to register and send with payment. $20 Advance Registration; $25 after February 29

Name (s): _____

Email

address: _____

Street

Address: _____ City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Phone (s) (Please include Area Codes): _____

Surnames Researching: _____

May we include your information in our program book? Yes _____ No _____

tickets _____ @ $20 _____ Amount of check

Make check payable to TCGS and mail registration fee to TCGS, P.O. Box 12582, Fort Pierce, FL 34981