

December 1995 Newsletter

Our Readers Write

From The Old World To The New

Village Spotlight

The Village of Wasserau and the Rubey Family
Part 2

THE STORY OF THE RUBEY FAMILY of Wasserau in the Parish of Muttersdorf (St. Sebastian)
by Johann Gröbner
Translated by Harold Taurig

April 1994 Newsletter

German-Bohemian Ties To Kansas

The Bukovina Society
Their Story
from Oren Windholz

A New Tragedy In a Blood-Stained Corner Of Czechoslovakia

Part 2
(Reprinted from The German Tribune)

FEEFHS CONVENTION

First FEEFHS Convention
To Feature Many Germanic Experts

Research Committee News

Valuable Research Information Uncovered
by Robert Paulson
Land Records Available
by Eric Fischer

Egerlander's Life Was Bleak In the 1870's and 1880's

by Emmet J. Hoffmann

Elderberries

Der Holunder Blume

by Angie Portner

A Book Review

Ken Meter and Robert Paulson, Border People: The Böhmisches (German-Bohemians) in America (Minneapolis: Crossroads Resource Center, with the German-Bohemian Heritage Society, New Ulm, 1993), 32 pp.

Reviewed by Ed Brandt

Letters From Home

submitted by Angie (Meidl) Portner)

Schatskopf, the Game and Its Meaning

by Emmet J. Hoffmann

Village Spotlight

Stockau

Die Burg Hirschstein

by Robert Paulson

G-B Heritage Singers Producing Cassette

German-Bohemian Family Data Base

To Be Updated

by Bob Paulson

December 1993 Newsletter

A Christmas Tradition

Rhyme And Reason

Van Kerschbaum des Astl

by Paul Kretsch

Fond Memories Accompany

Many Cookbook Orders

by Emmet J. Hoffmann

Village Spotlight

The Village of Natschetin

Part Two

Translated by Catherine Hornick

Czechoslovakia Now

Divided Into Two Republics

by Emmet J. Hoffmann

Letters From Home

by Angie (Meidl) Portner.)

A New Tragedy In A Blood-Stained Corner Of Czechoslovakia

Part 1

(Reprinted from The German Tribune)

August 1993 Newsletter

Rhyme And Reason

HundsFoutta

by Kurt Eisen & Paul Kretsch

Cookbook News Article

Produces Many Comments

by Emmet J. Hoffmann

Recipes

Vinegar Cabbage

(Essig Kraut)

German Style Green Beans

German Style Peas

Travel Thoughts - Tour 1993

by Mariann Tremel

Neighbors

Sellner's Energy Lifts Spirits Of Others

by Robin Webster
(reprinted from the Sleepy Eye Herald-Dispatch)

Farm Life in Bohemia in 1870 Was Grim
by Emmet J. Hoffmann

Memorable Experiences
European Trip 1993
by Paul Krestch

GBHS Members
at Heimatkreistreffen
by Emmet Hoffmann

Hilly-Billy Queen Gets Her King!
by Bob Paulson

Muttersdorf Church Renovation
An Update
by Bob Paulson

Village Spotlight
The Village of Natschetin
Part One
Translated by Catherine Hornick

March 1993 Newsletter

German-Bohemian Village Spotlight
Village of Rindl
Jungrindl
by Robert Paulson

We Have Lost a Good Friend
by Paul Krestch

Rudolf Kiefner is Taken From Us

Monument Book Completed

The "Boehmer Koenig", The King of The Bohemians

A Tradition Revived

by Robert Paulson

Letters . . .

Letter written by Leopold Hafner, the sculptor of the German-Bohemian Monument, to Robert Paulson.)

Christmas At The Museum

St. Nick A Bohemian?

Wanda Gag Centennial

A Prayer For Rudi Kiefner

1934-1993

Die Waldler Messe

Rudi Kiefner Remembered

The article is a summary of a newspaper article written in the Bischofteinitzer Heimatbote published on Friday, February 19, 1993. to Translated by Kurt Eisen

