

The scene changes

The skylines of cities are being changed by wrecking crews in the name of progress and LaGrange is no exception.

The old building at the corner of U.S. 20 and S.R. 9 is almost gone to make way for a parking lot. The building, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Lemings, was originally a home, then a hotel and in later years was an apartment house.

The Lemings are operating a Dairy Queen business on the site.

A picture of the building in former years is shown along with the Free Baptist Church that used to stand just west of the hotel. The church was dedicated in March of 1907 or 1908. #
