

NorthWest Indiana Genealogical Society

40th Anniversary

Saturday April 17, 2010

9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Schererville/Dyer Library

A Military Symposium With Ron Darrah Speaking on

Ron has been a genealogical researcher for more than twenty years. He is the chair of the Indiana Genealogical Society affiliate, Society of Civil War Families. Ron has chaired and served on many of the IGS Committees. He is a member of the First Families of Ohio and Civil War Families of Ohio. He has also published several genealogical books, and remains active in preserving and providing access to historical records in the Marion County area and around the state.

Keeping your Powder Dry: Revolutionary War Genealogy

Brother vs. Brother: Family History and the Civil War

A Splendid Little War: Spanish-American War Genealogy

Over There: World War One Genealogy

Registration $7.00 Includes Lunch Please Register by April 1, 2010

Name: _____

Address: _____

City _____ State _____ Phone _____

Send Registration to
NWIGS
40th Anniversary
P.O. Box 595
Griffith, IN 46319