What does the Friends of Oxon Hill Library do?

The Friends of Oxon Hill Library supports and enhances the Library in many ways, including;

- ▲ Promoting the Library in the community,
- ▲ Stimulating support for the Library,
- ▲ Participating and sponsoring special programs and events.

Every dollar collected from membership dues, book sales and charitable donations is given to the Oxon Hill Library.

EVENTS AND PROGRAMS

Some of the special events and programs that the Friends of Oxon Hill Library have funded and supported are:

- ▲ Summer Reading programs for children and teens
- ▲ Ebony Sunshine Puppet Show
- ▲ Mother and Daughter book discussion
- ▲ Ice Cream Social for children
- ▲ Prizes for the Sojourner Truth Room Art Contest
- ▲ Poetry Slam prizes
- ▲ TAB (Teen Advisory Board) and other teen events.
- ▲ Happy Birthday Obama celebration
- ▲ A week-long celebration of Sojourner Truth

What does the Friends of Oxon Hill Library do?

The Friends also have purchased supplies and materials for the library that the operating budget does not cover. They provide a subscription to Book Page for customers to take for free. They hold two book and bake sales per year and sponsor an annual Home for the Holidays Jazz program featuring pianist, Al Davis. This year it will be held in conjunction with a Silent Auction.

The Friends are currently raising funds to support the following:

- ▲ Summer Quest Reading programs for children and teens for 2011
- ▲ Sojourner Truth Programs
- ▲ Other needs of the Oxon Hill Library caused by budget cuts.
