

DOUGLAS COUNTY (MO) CHURCH HISTORY BOOK – SURVEY FORM (PAGE 1)

Will you help us create a book of all the churches, past and present, in Douglas County? Yes, we will put it together for you if you can supply us with the pictures and information, just fill out the attached page, and any other information you would like to include.

Write a story about your church and its history. What you need to put in the story: (1) name, (2) when started, (3) who gave land, (4) location, (5) pictures, (6) who is in charge of building now, (7) changes in the building, (3) is the building still being used, (4) who is the present pastor

Frequently asked questions:

1. Cost for church to be in the book? None; it is free.
2. How many pictures or words? No limit
3. Why should you write this? You need to have a record of your church somewhere so other people will know about it and before the history is lost.
4. Deadline? There is no deadline, but they will be printed as they come in and the first printing will be Mar. 1, 2008.
5. Why are we doing this? Because there is no complete list or book of the churches in Douglas County and when visitors come here they don't know what churches are available to go to.
6. Who do you contact? The Douglas County Historical Society P. O. Box 986 Ava, Mo. 65608 - Museum Phone number 417-683-5799. Also, send emails to docomuseum@hotmail.com.
