

C.A.R. Alumni Foundation

What is C.A.R. Alumni Foundation (CARAF)?

The Children of the American Revolution Alumni Foundation (CARAF) was established in April 2001 to join together former C.A.R. members through various social activities and Internet communications, to promote the activities of N.S.C.A.R. through leadership, education, financial support and grants, and to continue and rekindle friendships of former C.A.R. members.

I was never a National Officer. Can I join CARAF?

CARAF is open to all alumni of the Children of the American Revolution. If you were a member of C.A.R., you can be a member of CARAF!

When does CARAF meet?

CARAF's annual meeting is held in April during C.A.R. National Convention weekend.

Are there annual dues?

CARAF does not collect dues; however, annual contributions of any dollar amount are gladly accepted.

How do I join CARAF?

- Contact Christopher Bianchi, CARAF President (christopher.m.bianchi@gmail.com)
- Join our Facebook group – search for C.A.R. Alumni Foundation (CARAF)

We would appreciate receiving your contact information to update our database. Please send your full name (current and name while a member of C.A.R., if different), mailing address, telephone number, and email address to christopher.m.bianchi@gmail.com.

Optional information includes your former local society/state, offices/chairmanships held, and years served.