

20th Annual Montana State Genealogical Conference September 25 and 26, 2009

Red Lion Colonial Inn, Helena

featuring
Jana Sloan Broglin, CG

A native of northwest Ohio, Jana is a professional genealogist with over twenty-five years of experience. She has spoken at local, state, regional, and national conferences. She is also a freelance writer. Jana is currently serving as Vice President of Membership for the Federation of Genealogical Societies and is a past trustee of the Ohio Genealogical Society.

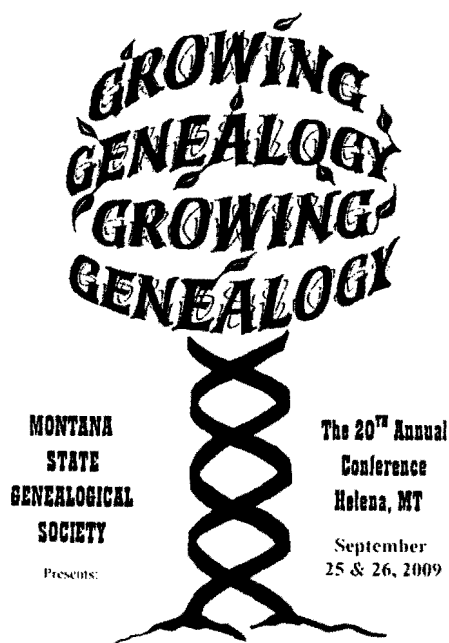

Jana will present:

Ohio: the Great Land Experiment - Ohio was the first state created from the Northwest Territory. Learn about migration, county formation, land offices, and the survey systems unique to Ohio.

The Role of the Genealogical Society in the 21st Century - Learn how your society can attract members, have a user-friendly website, encourage membership through publications and promote meetings.

Ohio Records and Repositories - Planning a research trip? Learn the types of records available. Discover the best libraries and archives in the state of Ohio. Internet sources for those working from home.

Hooker's, Crooks, and Kooks: Or Aunt Merle Didn't Run a Boarding House - A light-hearted look at searching for the black sheep in the family. Presented in costume.

We are also planning a tour for the afternoon of Thursday, September 24th.

Sister Dolores Brinkel, SCL Archivist will speak on Accessing & Researching Records at the Catholic
Diocese of Montana, which is located in Helena.

We are also planning other topics and speakers to be announced.

Conference Registration Forms will be mailed in July.

Put September 24, 25, 26, 2009 on your calendar
and make plans to attend!
