

A vertical advertisement for 'The Davie Record' newspaper. At the top, the title 'The Davie Record' is written in a large, bold, serif font. Below the title, it says 'PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY E. H. MORRIS & COMPANY.' in a smaller font. A section titled 'SUBSCRIPTION PRICE IN ADVANCE' lists '1 Year $1 00' and '6 Months .50'. Below this, it says 'Advertising Rates on Application.' and 'Address All Communications to E. H. MORRIS, Editor, MOCKSVILLE, N. C.' A section titled 'Entered at the Postoffice at Mocksville, N. C., as Second Class Matter, May, 12th 1899.' follows. The bottom section is titled 'ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF TRAINS' and lists departure times for 'SOUTH BOUND' (1:00 p. m. and 6:00 p. m.) and 'NORTH BOUND' (7:15 a. m. and 11:30 a. m.). At the very bottom, the text 'LOCAL ITEMS.' is printed in a large, bold, serif font.

Top and left: The Davie Record Nameplate on page one, May 10, 1889 and masthead. The publisher was E.H. Morris. Subscription rate for one year was $1.

Also included was the train schedule of 4 trains leaving Mocksville daily.