Jane McAllister, librarian of Martin-Wall accepts a plaque honoring Andrew Lagle, creator of Lagle Land Grant map. To the right are Mrs. Lagle; Linda Leonard, society president; Doris Frye, previous librarian of history room; James Wall, county historian; and Mrs. Wall. 14 Sept. 2008.

Nancy Kelly Murphy receives a plaque of appreciation from the society in honor of her 30 years of volunteering in the history room and with the society. The table shows the many books she compiled of Davie County history. At left is Doris Frye, standing are James Wall and Linda Leonard. 23 Sept. 2008.

The society had a field trip to the White House on a knoll in the historical area of the Shallowford in Huntsville, just over the Davie County line in Yadkin County. This beautiful home has been accurately restored by Russ and Betty Morton. The Georgia-style house was built circa 1793 by Henry Young, and is listed on the National Registry of Historical Places and contains six fireplaces and heart pine floors that were hand planed. 24 June 2007
