

Marriage and Death Notices from the Catawba Journal, 1824-1828

By Glenn M. Cook

Additional records have been found that supplement previously published lists. Mr. Cook has made a new compilation that includes pertinent comments from the notices.

I have always felt that there was a need for more work in the marriage and death categories of North Carolina research, particularly in the Mecklenburg County region. This feeling was caused by difficulties involved in trying to locate some of my family members. When I expressed a desire to find these missing files, a member of the Olde Mecklenburg Genealogical Society suggested I scan the weekly Catawba Journal published in the mid-1820s.

Welcoming the opportunity to take on the task, I ordered microfilm of the newspapers from 4 October 1824 through 29 April 1828 from the North Carolina Department of Cultural Resources. During my research, I discovered that William Navey had compiled much of the information and posted it on the Internet. Mr. Navey's work became a welcome double-check for me. My findings added more marriages and death notices to his list. Also, 62 new marriages were added to those listed in "The Hunting for Bears" collection.¹

Thirty-seven marriages are not found in Marriages of Mecklenburg County, North Carolina, 1783-1868, compiled by Brent H. Holcomb, probably because no marriage bond was recorded. A number of notices were for marriages taking place in Iredell and Lincoln Counties, North Carolina. The following six marriage notices are not on Navey's list:

- Matthew Alexander to Margaret McCorkle in Mecklenburg County
- Michael Berryhill to Mary Pelt in Mecklenburg County
- William A. Tye to Cornelia H. Shaver in Mecklenburg County
- Daniel Caldwell to Mrs. Elizabeth Dickson, either in Cabarrus or Mecklenburg County
- David Houston to Lemira Osborn in Iredell County
- Moses Neely to June McDowell in Mecklenburg County

While searching for the marriage notices, it was easy to abstract death notices as well [these appear on page 13]. Sixteen of the death notices do not appear in Navey's list.

Every effort has been made to make these data as accurate as possible.
