

Marriage Notices from The North Carolina Whig, 1852-1857

These marriage notices from The North Carolina Whig, a newspaper published in Charlotte, North Carolina, cover the period from 1852 to 1857 and were compiled by OMGS member Glenn M. Cook. The remaining notices running from 19 January 1858 and to 30 September 1862, which was the last extant issue carrying marriage notices before the Whig ceased publication in 1863, will be posted on this webpage in December 2005.

Notices of weddings were not restricted to Charlotte and Mecklenburg County but also came from the surrounding counties of Anson, Cabarrus, Catawba, Gaston, Iredell, Lincoln, Rowan, and Union as well as Alexander, Burke, Caldwell, Duplin, and Wake. South Carolina counties were represented by York, Chester, Charleston, Kershaw, and Lexington. Former Mecklenburg residents sent their announcements in from McKinley, Alabama; Paulding County, Georgia, Panola, Mississippi; and Tipton Co., Tennessee.

The Whig marriage notices bridge the gap between notices that have been abstracted from Charlotte's other newspapers and published separately, some partially on the Internet. The following published marriage abstracts may be found in the Robinson-Spangler Carolina Room of the Public Library of Charlotte-Mecklenburg County: The Charlotte Journal (1835-1851), the Mecklenburg Jeffersonian (1841-1849), and the Charlotte Democrat (1871-1876).
