

An Invitation to Afternoon Tea

with Hannah Casso Stuart, circa 1830's

Saturday, March 3, 2012 2:30 - 3:30 p.m.

Olivia Raney Local History Library

Join local historian and historic interpreter Kerri Habben as she plays the part of Hannah Casso Stuart, one of Raleigh's first heroes and leading female figures. While enjoying tea, you will learn about life in early nineteenth century Raleigh from Stuart's perspective. She will chronicle her heroic experiences in the fire of 1831, her knowledge of well known families such as the Mordecai's and Chavis', and the visit by the Marquis de Lafayette .

Bring your favorite cup & saucer and enjoy tea & refreshments.

Call or email to make your reservations
as seating is limited.

(919) 250-1196

OliviaRaney@wakegov.com

