COMING SUMMER 2009 to LULU.COM!

Wake County Deed Book R, Pages 1-250. An early fire destroyed most of Wake Counties earliest deed books up through Book Q. We are so excited to make available abstracts of the contents of Deed Book R; these will be a great help to anyone researching early Wake County land owners!

Raleigh Township, School Census, 1897.

Wake County Levy Dockets, 1805. Cases of debt acted upon by the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Wake County.

Methodology at the North Carolina State Archives -- Articles Written by Debra A. Blake, Supervisor, NCSA. Over the course of many years, Debra Blake has written articles about North Carolina records that we have printed in the Wake Treasures. Now, in one place, you will have a great overview of some of the wonderful records held at the NC archives -- a guide to doing NC research.
