“Daniel and Rebecca Boone”, Mocksville, North Carolina, August 14, 2010

Around 70 people enjoyed talks, audio visuals, visiting, and eating in the spacious, modern facility.

Randell Jones was the key note speaker about Daniel Boone, his family and his adventures that are described in his book In the Footsteps of Daniel Boone.

Randy Bryan spoke about his Bryan family research and visited with those attending.

Gary Marshall described his book (Rich Man: Daniel Boone) and research about Joseph Hampton Rich who placed almost 400 Daniel Boone markers along highways.

Mark Hager spoke about his work with his college students and their research of Old Joppa Cemetery. He also led a tour there.
