The Genealogical Society of New Jersey is a non-profit organization. Founded in September 1921, its primary objectives are to discover, procure, preserve and publish information pertaining to the history of families associated with New Jersey. For over 80 years, the Society has endeavored to meet this objective through several volunteer efforts, including The Genealogical Magazine of New Jersey, the GSNJ Newsletter, public programs, gravestone transcription, special publications, research collections and responses to genealogical correspondence.
