

A Guide to the Genealogy and Local History COLLECTIONS of the
PASSAIC COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY

by Jessica E. Peters and Carol Thompson ~ March, 1986

~ INTRODUCTION ~

The Passaic County Historical Society operates a museum and research library within the stately confines of Lambert Castle. This imposing work of architectural splendor is located on the steep slope of Garret Mountain overlooking the cityscape of historic Paterson. This Victorian era mansion was built in 1892 by silk magnate, Catholina Lambert.

The Society has managed to put together a tremendous collection of materials related to the local history of cities and towns within Passaic County as well as an extensive body of genealogical information on thousands of families who lived within the county.

This publication is intended as a guide to items in our collections that will prove useful and time saving to researchers in genealogy and local history.
