Learn About Lives Cloaked in Mystery and Tragedy!

Take a walk through the Monroe Street Cemetery and meet the “ghosts” of days past reenacting tales of murders and mayhem.

- An unsolved mystery of a woman distraught by demons.
- A heart-wrenching melodrama that moved murder from stage to real life.
- The shooting of a teenager that made news as far away as New York City.
- A beloved nurse strangled in an abandoned theater.
- Musings on Victorian mourning from the undertaker’s widow.
- Tales from a former cemetery caretaker who witnessed a senseless crime perpetrated on the cemetery itself.

Casey Daniels, creator of the fictional Pepper Martin mystery series, will be the featured guest to talk about the cemetery and her newest novel. She will autograph her books, which will be on sale at the event.
