

COME & LEARN!

Sponsored by the Fulton County Chapter OGS

Everything you ever wanted to know about how to trace your Family History? (or at least enough to get started)

October 16, 2008

from 2 – 7 PM at the

Evergreen Community Library in Metamora, Ohio

“KEY TO GENEALOGY RESEARCH”

Presented by Jana Sloan Broglin

Start with what you already know; Researching at the Courthouse; What's in the newspapers? Have you lost your “Census”?

“NET ‘EM FOR FREE”

Presented by Nancy Dzierzawski

Reasons to use the Internet: Learning how to research; Looking for information; Connecting with other researchers; Post results to share.

Refreshments will be provided. Fee $15.00 for pre-registration, $20.00 at the door (space permitting). Pre-registration recommended. Attendees will receive one year free membership in Fulton County Chapter OGS. Contact Kathy Seigneur at Phone number 419-826-2741 or Email her at aunt.kate23@yahoo.com.

Come early or stay late (library open until 8 PM) to browse our Chapter's research material in its new location at the Evergreen Community Library.
