PREFACE

Greenlawn Cemetery, located at Offnere and Grant Streets, is the only public cemetery in Portsmouth, Ohio. It incorporates several smaller cemeteries and covers about 40 acres.

The first graveyard in Portsmouth was on the east banks of the Scioto River, but repeated flooding convinced the city council to purchase land elsewhere for a new cemetery. The first area of Greenlawn was laid out in 1829, the sections now known as #23, #24, and City. Sections were added a few acres at a time until the present size was attained. Most of the bodies were moved from the old graveyard to Greenlawn in 1830.

Burial records from 1872 to the present are available at the main office, near the Offnere St. entrance. No records before 1872 survived the office fire that year; however, for a time, records of Greenlawn burials were published~ and researchers can check microfilm copies of the old newspapers at the Portsmouth Public Library.

When the Scioto County Chapter of the Ohio Genealogical Society voted to list the earliest inscriptions from Greenlawn, it was decided to copy every stone with death dates 1900 or earlier, and their apparent spouses. All markers in the mausoleum were listed.

Vandalism has been a regular occurrence at Greenlawn for many years. Every effort was made to decipher stones that were broken or weathered, but many inscriptions are indicated as questionable. The stones were listed in physical order by rows or plots, section by section, throughout the cemetery.

A section map will help researchers locate a stone more quickly and determine possible family relationships.

Jean Seeley, Caryn~. Shoemaker, and Julie S. Bowles donated great amounts of time to see this project finished. Members of the society who assisted were Elizabeth Bandy, Virgil and Marguerite Ramsey, Pearl Fraley, Pearl Henson, Dolores Schoonover, and Esther Duewel. Ruth Klopp listed about 1100 stone inscriptions about thirty years ago, and her list was used to compare questionable names and dates, and to supply information about stones missed or now missing. (See Addenda.)

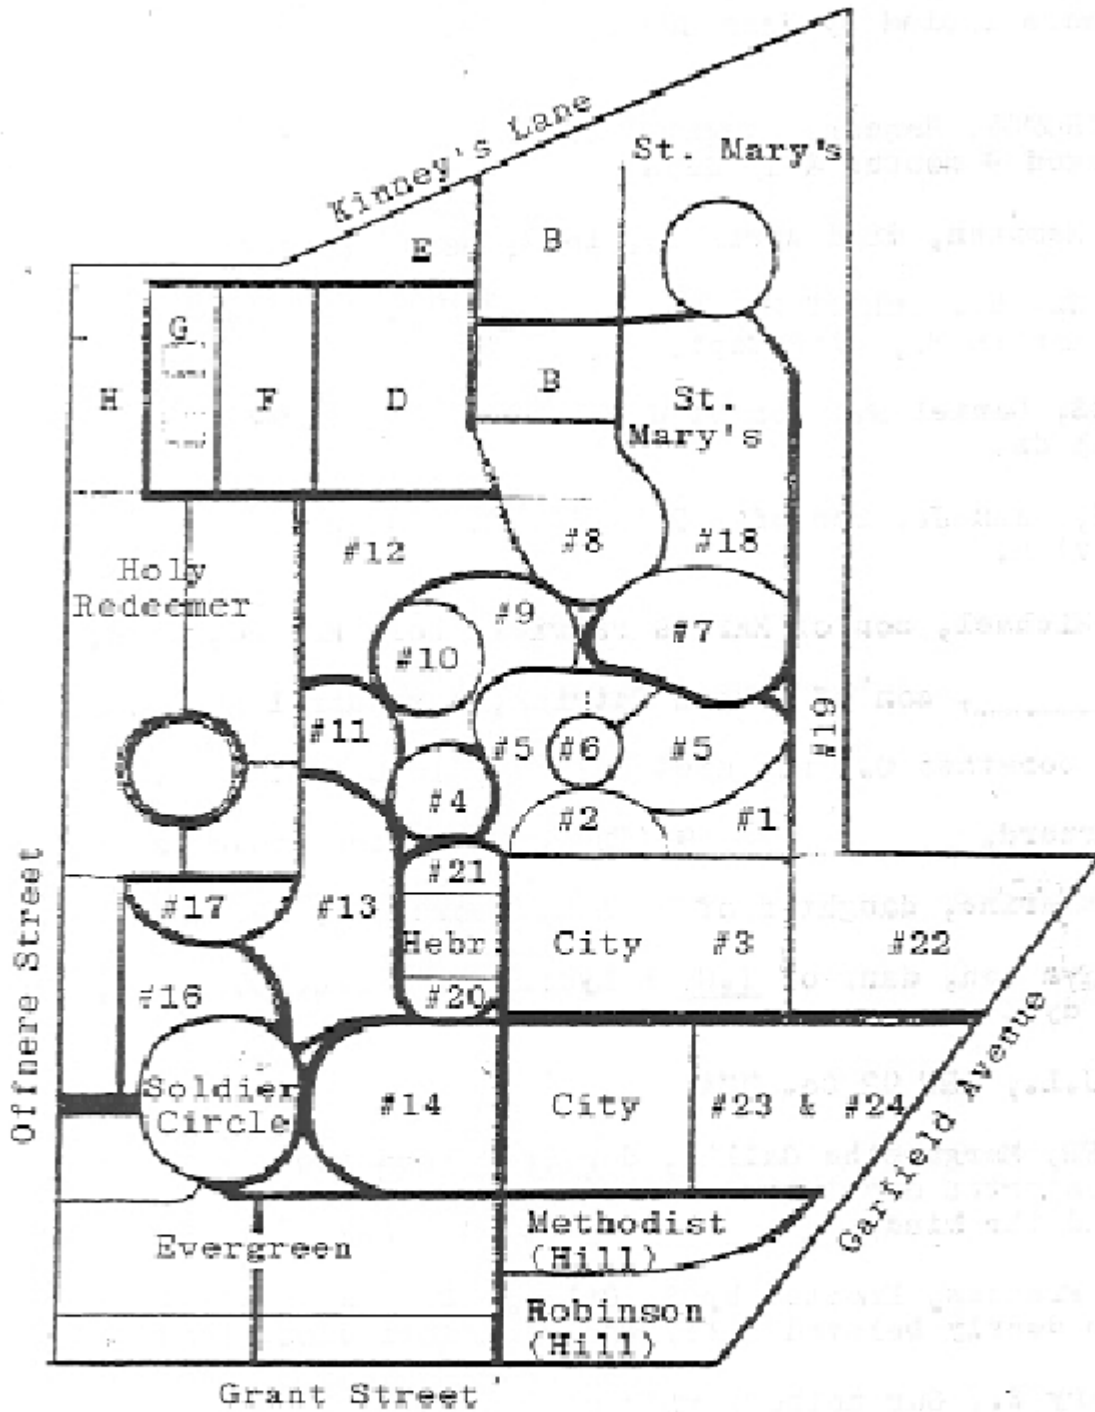

None of the workers will deny the inevitability of errors. The group welcomes corrections or comments, addressed to the Scioto County Chapter of O.G.S., Post Office Box 812, Portsmouth, Ohio.

GREENLAWN CEMETERY - Section 3 & City North

On the map, it appears as if there are two sections divided by a road, but the roadway has been used for graves too, now, and the two sections are one. These inscriptions were copied June 19, 1982 by Caryn R. Shoemaker, CGRS. Only those burials from 1900 and prior years were listed, unless they were on the same stone, or immediately next to an apparent spouse who died before 1900. Most of the stones from these sections date from the 1920's and 1930's. Questionable engraving is underlined.

GREENLAWN CEMETERY - City South Section

Only burials 1900 and prior were listed, unless they were on the same stone or immediately next to an apparent spouse who died before 1900. Questionable engraving is underlined, as quite a few of the stones were eroded or broken. These inscriptions were listed August 1982 by Caryn R. Shoemaker, CGRS, Jonathan Shoemaker and Jody Shoemaker. Inscriptions were given in order as they are physically located in rows.

End of City South Section

GREENLAWN CEMETERY - Section 20

These three sections are not divided by roads. Section 20 is on the south side of the Hebrew section, and section 21 is on the north side of the lot. Those two sections are laid out in circular rows of pie-shaped lots. The Hebrew stones often had inscriptions in Hebrew instead of, or in addition to, the English inscriptions. (I cannot translate.) Stones were copied in what appears to be lots, rather than strictly row by row. Most stones are in good condition, though some are fading or worn. Copied Oct. 8, 1983 by Caryn R. Shoemaker.

GREENLAWN CEMETERY - Section 14

This section is circular at the west side and lots are apparently laid out in an arc along that edge, then in rows working east. This listing starts at the west side and I have tried to copy them in what appears to be sections rather than strict "row-by-row". Most are in good condition. Copied Oct. 8, 1983 by Caryn R. GREENLAWN CEMETERY - Evergreen (2)

The southwest corner of Greenlawn Cemetery is labelled Evergreen on the cemetery maps, but there are several sections by that name. This listing covers the section from the first driveway in the southwest corner, north to the second driveway. It borders Offnere Street at 16th Street. The stones copied are from 1900 or earlier, or appear to be spouses of one who died in 1900 or earlier. I started in the southwest corner of the section, moving north and south down the rows, working toward the center of Greenlawn Cemetery. Dolores Schoonover copied the last three rows in the section. Sept. 7, 1983.

GREENLAWN CEMETERY - Sections 1 & 2

The map shows two distinct sections, but there is no road through the area now and the separation between section 1 and section 2 is not obvious. These inscriptions were copied June 2, 1984 by Caryn R. Shoemaker, working from the northeast corner south and west in rows. Only inscriptions from 1900 and prior or family members with those buried 1900 and prior, were copied.

GREENLAWN CEMETERY - Section 5

This section is an oblong, curved section, located in the east central section of the cemetery. It can be easily located by entering the Garfield Avenue gate and turning right at the first lane. It is the third section on the left after the turn. These inscriptions were copied by Marguerite and Virgil Ramsey on June 2, 1984. The inscriptions start at the end of the section closest to Garfield Avenue.

GREENLAWN CEMETERY - Section D, E, F & G

These sections are all relatively new sections of the cemetery and are all located behind the mausoleum buildings, west of the Kinney's Lane entrance. Many of the stones are for Spanish American War Veterans, but have not dates, therefore they were copied since it was possible that they were pre-1900 burials. The inscriptions were copied by Elizabeth Bandy in June, 1983.

GREENLAWN CEMETERY - Section H

The northwest corner of the cemetery, bordering Kinneys Lane and Offnere Street has two sections labelled on the map as "H". The northermost part has no stone before 1903. These sections were checked June 2, 1984 by Caryn R. Shoemaker.

MATHIOTT, Harry W. Co H Ohio Inf Sp Am War

The more southern of the two sections has no stone older than 1914.

GREENLAWN CEMETERY - Old Mausoleum

The mausoleum located closest to Kinney's Lane is the older of the two located in Greenlawn Cemetery. Most of the inscriptions are from the 1920's, 30's, 40's and 50's, with a few earlier and a few later. These were copied by Julie Bowles and Jean Seeley in July, 1983.

GREENLAWN CEMETERY - Addenda

During the 1950's, Ruth Klopp listed or partially listed many of Scioto County's cemeteries. Her partial list of Greenlawn Cemetery contains 1140 inscriptions. It is not dated, but we know she had the advantage of some thirty years. Unfortunately, her list is in alphabetic order, so there is no way to tell where in the cemetery the stone is or was. The inscriptions not previously listed which are on her list are provided here.
