A Note From The Editor

Hello Members,

Sprint is here! Time to get out and visit Scioto County Cemeteries!

This issue contains our annual Researchers Listing. Please review the list and feel free to contact other members who are researching the same surnames as you. Perhaps they may hold the key to your brick wall! Also, please double check your information for accuracy and let me know of any corrections.

SCCOGS has many new publications in the works for 2008, hence our featured speaker for the April meeting. We hope to publish a Scioto County Family History Book, A Pictorial Picture Book of Portsmouth Past with pictures donated to us by member Terry Minch and our Nile Township Cemetery Inscriptions Book, which should soon go to print as I am in the process of indexing the names. We also hope to be able to finish Bloom Township Cemetery Inscriptions and publish it in 2008 as well.

Our 3rd Annual Family History Day is being planned for August 16, 2008 at the Scioto County Welcome Center. Further details and speaker information will be announced as they become available.

The deadline for information to be included in the next newsletter is May 15th.

Dear Gladys:

In reference to your message dated March 4, 2008 (regarding my inquiry about Burch Lineage in Scioto Co. OH) I now know exactly who each of the people are that you so kindly issued information on. Yes, they are our ancestral relatives!!!! Here is the lineup of things as I know it...and if OGS happens to maintain individual files on families I will be happy to supply you with what I know on the THOMAS BURCH Sr. (1746-1844) Lineage. Just let me know if you are interested in it! Our patriarch, Thomas Burch Sr. was b. in 1746 in Ireland...was a Rev. War Veteran, died 14 Apr. 1844 in Monongalia, W.Va. His 1st wife, Mary Gray (md. 17 Oct. 1871 in Montgomery Co. MD) They had 8 or 9 children...one of them being Thomas Burch Jr. (1786-1880's)...he died possibly in KY, but a son of his went on to Scioto, OH.

2nd family: Mary (Maria) Knox became the common law wife for Thomas Burch Sr. abt. 1806 and they had 8-10 children and a son David from this family also went to Scioto Co. OH. Thomas Burch Jr. (1786-1860's) had a son named Matthew b. abt. 1812 & Matthew had a son named Samuel who married Harriet Dever Burch. The other man named Samuel Birch who married Lucy Burch was the Son of David Burch (1814-1860's) This man, David was from the 2nd family of Thomas Burch Sr.

David Burch (1814-1860's) died in Scioto Co. OH. He had married Sarah _____ abt. 1831 in PA and they had the following children: Thomas H. Burch, Winfield Burch, Samuel L. Burch, Oliver Burch and David M. Burch. Thomas H. Burch (1832-1910) married Mary Ellen Vandegrith on 14 May 1861 in Scioto Co. OH. She is the lady buried in Haverhill Cemetery. At the time that I received your letter I did not have a clue who these people were...but they are indeed our relatives!!! Thank you...you are so smart!!!! :-)

If this is confusing to you...just imagine how confusing it is to an old lady like me!!!! :-) Thanks for your help. Take care & God Bless!!
Clara W. Thompson

The Public Schools of Portsmouth

The following was extracted from "The Portsmouth Blade—Industrial Edition, Saturday, August 6, 1898, Vol. 22, No. 53" Submitted to SCCOGS by member Terry Minch.

The educational advantages of a city are measured not by the taxes levied, the instructors employed or the curriculum in force, but by the sentiments of the community composing it. "I thank God there are no free schools in Virginia", wrote Governor Dinwiddie to the mother country in old Colonial days, but the sentiments of the people of those early times no longer find echo or approval in our community.

When the emigrants from Connecticut settled on the Western Reserve of Ohio, free schools followed in their record of civilization, and when, in 1803, Ohio took her place in the Union, her Constitution made liberal provisions for schools.

Portsmouth was incorporated as a town March 1, 1815, and very early wise provisions were made for the educational advantages of its future. Henry Massie donated for school purposes lots number 130, 143 and 39. On the first two lots the Second Street school building now stands. In 1829 the first free school was taught in Portsmouth, by George R. Kelley, in a building near the corner of Third and Washington Streets, continuing for a period of three months.

By a provision of the Town Charter as amended in 1838, the control of the schools was vested in the town council. In this year the value of school property, exclusive of the land, was $500, and the youths enumerated, 547. This year a contract was made by the board with Ratcliff & Shultz to erect a public school building on Fourth Street, for $5,450. In old history the following account is chronicled of this building: "This edifice is constructed on the model of the Boston and Cincinnati school houses, so remarkable for elegance of external aspect and convenience for the purpose designed. It is three stories in height, and has six rooms, capable of accommodating 800 scholars." The building was completed in 1839, at a final cost of $5,810.15.

The Public Schools of the city kept pace with the growth of the county, and, today, Portsmouth may be justly termed a city of schools. In 1872 the first superintendent was elected, being Prof. John Bolton. Following his term of office the superintendents are as follows: J.F. Lukens, M.S. Campbell, William M. Friesner, J.A.I. Lowes, E.S. Cox and Dr. Thomas Vickers.

Prior to the date of opening the first free school in the city a teacher by the name of Chockson Smith, opened a pay school in a log house on Second Street, at a yearly rental of $25.00. The furniture was in keeping with those early days—of the most primitive kind. The seats were benches made from slabs, with riven legs, and without backs. The desks were made from pine boards leaning against the wall, at which the students took lessons in writing, and which were used to store dinner baskets, hats and kindling wood. Wide, pen fire-places were fed, with no thought of expense for fuel, as the primeval forest at the very door furnished a plentiful supply.

In 1836 a Select Female Seminary was organized, and a building long known as The Seminary, was erected on a lot donated by the city at the corner of Fifth and Court Streets.
