Generation No. 1

1. DAVID² MUNRO (DAVID¹) was born 1740 in Ross-shire, Scotland. He married NANCY MCKAY 1764 in Ross-shire, Scotland. She was born 1744 in Tain, Ross-shire, Scotland.

Notes for DAVID MUNRO:
David and his wife Nancy came from Creich a small village up the river from Dornoch. David and Nancy signed 'Indenture papers to get to New York where they were consigned to a 'McAdam' in New York. They sailed on the Brigg 'Nancy of Sutherland. Capt John Munro bought their 'Indenture in 1774 so they could be free tenants on his lands in Arlington-Shaftsbury in the area of NY Province - upper NY near Bennington (now VT). David was 38 and Nancy was 27 at this time. They were both illiterate.
David's name is listed on Capt John Munro's secretly recruited private soldiers for the Highland emigrant Regt in Sept 1775. Capt John was arrested as a spy - David and other recruits fled north to Canada where they were signed into several companies. David was subsequently taken prisoner during the battle of Bennington(1777) and spent most of of the Revolutionary War as a prisoner.
David settled on the North Branch Road, 2 miles west of Martintown.
