We would like to provide you with some information you may find useful about the York Region Branch of the Ontario Genealogical Society.

This Branch covers the area formerly known as the County of York, now known as the Regional Municipality of York. This comprises the townships north of Steeles Avenue, up to the boundaries of Simcoe County, with the boundaries of the Regional Municipality of Durham on the east, and the Regional Municipality of Peel on the west.

Contact information about the Branch may be found on our website at <http://www.rootsweb.com/~onyrbogs>.

Meetings are held the 2nd Wednesday of the month, at 7.15 p.m. from September to November, and February to June.

Free parking is available in the library lots.

York Region Branch genealogical library is housed at the Richmond Hill Public Library, in the Genealogy and Local History Room on the 4th floor. This room is closed on Sundays.

The Branch library is open to the public during library hours.

Our meetings are always open to guests and we would be pleased if you would visit us.

Our Branch newsletter, York Region Ancestors, (winner of the 2001 Marion Keffer Award for Best Overall Newsletter) is published 4 times a year and contains many interesting articles and information to keep our members informed about matters of general genealogical interest, and sources and information for York Region researchers.

Check out our website at <http://www.rootsweb.com/~onyrbogs> for contact information for the Branch council, information on upcoming meetings, and membership information. A list of publications available from the Branch, and some suggested sources and information for York Region researchers is also posted.
