

Useful websites in documenting Heirlooms and Mementos:

<http://www.cyndislist.com/>

Multiple listings by categories

www.playle.com/realphoto/photoa.php

Playle's photo auction website has many interesting resources including information to research picture postcard markings

www.russiansamovars.com

Commercial site selling antique Judaica with wonderful pictures to use as comparisons to Judaica you may own

<http://blog.familytreemagazine.com/photodetectiveblog/>

Interesting site to view old photos and techniques to help in identifying them

<http://www.nebraskahistory.org/conservation/treasures/pdfs.htm>

Various pdfs on conservation as well as a pdf entitled "Documenting Your Family Treasures"

<http://digitalgallery.nypl.org/nypldigital/>

This is the digital gallery of the New York Public Library which has many categories of images to view including clothing of various periods

<http://www.costumes.org/history/100pages/costhistpage.htm>

This page has links to western costume history by period