

Introduction to Genetic Genealogy URL's

International Society of Genetic Genealogists (ISOGG)

<http://www.isogg.org/>

Email list for DNA Project Administrators

Email list for New DNA Project Administrators

Email list for Newbies – anyone interested in Genetic Genealogy

FTDNA Genetic Genealogy Tools (right side of page)

www.familytreedna.com

Charles Kerchner's Webpage

<http://www.kerchner.com/dna-info.htm>

A wonderful tutorial and array of information on Genetic Genealogy, including book recommendations.

National Geographic Society's Genographic Project

<https://www3.nationalgeographic.com/genographic/index.html>

Five year Genographic Project in collaboration with IBM and the Waitt Family Foundation. Family Tree DNA handles the testing through the University of Arizona Lab.

Revised Cambridge Reference Sequence

<http://www.mitomap.org/mitoseq.html>

The 16,568 markers for mitochondrial DNA (mtDNA)

Talley/Tally Surname DNA Website

<http://www.familytreedna.com/public/Talley%2DTally/>

Example of a Surname Project

Genetealogy.com

<http://www.genetealogy.com/index.html>

Megan Smolenyak Smolenyak's website with many resources

Lists surname projects from several testing companies

Cyndi's List for DNA

<http://www.cyndislist.com/dna.htm>

Various links to a wide range of DNA sources

World Families Network

<http://www.worldfamilies.net/>

Many wonderful resources

Emily Aulicino's Email and Genetic Genealogy Blog

aulicino@hevanet.com

<http://genealem-geneticgenealogy.blogspot.com/>