Newspaper Article: "American Sentinel" Saturday - July 29, 1893 --

Mrs. Charles H. Bixler, whom we mentioned as being quite ill several weeks ago, died at her home in Hanover, PA., Monday last, rather unexpectedly. Although her condition was critical, death came quite suddenly. While, as all thought, convalescing and looking forward to being able to be brought to her home here, a sudden change came and in a few days she passed away. Her age was 29 years and 4 months. Her remains were brought here for interment, Rev. S. M. Roeder officiating.
