TREVIA WOOSTER BEVERLY

Tejas Publications & Research
Houston, Texas

Trevia Wooster Beverly is a professional genealogist; amateur historian; cemetery preservationist; speaker and workshop leader; writer and publisher; book reviewer. She is listed in 1981 and 1990 editions of Meyer & Filby's Who's Who in Genealogy & Heraldry, in Who's Who of American Women, 1981-82, and Notable Women of Texas 1984-1985.

Her interest in genealogy began with a 9th grade English project and she has since traced her own paternal line and that of her husband to England in the early 1600s, and her mother's Acadian family from France to Canada, back to France and into Louisiana in 1785.

Trevia has presented numerous lectures and workshops to both genealogical and lineage groups on a variety of topics on both the local and state level. She serves as the Assistant Coordinator and Program Chair of the multi-day summer genealogy conference at Angelina College, Lufkin, Texas. Appointed to the Harris County Historical Commission in 1995; currently serves as Secretary. Served on the Mayor's Task Force for Houston History. She served as Host Chairman for the National Genealogical Society's annual Conference in the States, Houston, 1994. A member of the Society from 1975, she received their Distinguished Service Award, 1994.

A native of Harris County, Texas, she is married to Murphy T. Beverly with one daughter, two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.
