“Forgotten Treasures in the Texas Courthouse: Discovering the Miscellaneous Books”

By Patti Gillespie

Are you looking for context and documentation? Do you have an ancestor that seems to have slipped between the cracks? This presentation not only presents three fun Texan stories that have come to life with the information found in a Miscellaneous Book, but Patti will also show examples of assorted documents. Attendees will receive a list of all the Texas counties that hold one of these forgotten treasures.

DAY: Tuesday, September 26, 2017

TIME: 6:30 p.m. Tandy Auditorium

Central Branch, FW Library, 500 W. 3rd St.

Parking meters are free after 6 p.m. The 3rd St. Garage is free for 2 ½ hours—just validate your ticket in the library. Come at 6 p.m. for coffee.

An avid hobby genealogist for 20 years, Patti formed a research company, Family Lines & Stories. She helps clients and is a public speaker and presenter. She enjoys blogging at <http://www.familylinesandstories.com/>. Patti has assisted NARA Fort Worth with indexing slave manifest; spoken at the Texas State Genealogical Society state conference; chaired the video and streaming portion of the national Professional Management Conference sponsored by the Association of Professional Genealogists (APG); and has been awarded the Birdie Monk Holsclaw IGHR award. She is a founding member and second-term president of the Wise County Genealogical Society. Patti also volunteers in her local Family History Center and serves on the boards for Wise County Historical Society and Wise County Historical Commission. Patti attends as many conferences and watches as many webinars as she is able to manage with her husband, children, grandchildren, and acreage.
