Subject: Re: Cornell connection

Hi. Sorry for the delay. The Cornells are a distant bunch on my Long lineage -- related by marriage. I don't have any pictures of the Cornell family, but I do have pictures of some of Cora's children with James William Long. The scrapbook page is attached. Thanks for getting in touch. I've made notes in my file that you are researching this line. Have a great weekend. Carole Merrill (down the road in Tracy, CA).

"La Fayette was found dead in a pool of water. Foul play was suspected, but no proof was found and the matter was dropped."

Francena Brooks "Poling/Humphrey family Tree"

La Fayette Humphrey, farmer, P. O. Pepin, was born in St. Lawrence county, N. Y., April 5, 1841, and is a son of Abel R. and Julia (Stoddard) Humphrey. When he was five years old the family removed to Auburn, N. Y., where he attended school until about fifteen years old, when he began working on a farm. He afterward worked in a brickyard for two seasons.

August 22, 1862, he enlisted in Company K, 138th New York volunteers, but was afterward transferred to the Ninth New York heavy artillery. He worked on the fortification about Washington until 1864, after which he served in the army of the Potomac and in Sheridan's campaign in the Shenandoah valley, never missing an engagement in which his regiment participated. He was appointed sergeant September 20, 1864, but declined further promotion, preferring to stay with his comrades in the ranks. He was honorably discharged July 6, 1865, having escaped wounds, although often exposed to great dangers.

After the war Mr. Humphrey came to Waterville, Wis., and engaged in farming and lumbering. In 1871 he came to Pepin, where he now owns a farm of 105 acres on section twenty-one, township twenty-three, range fourteen.

November 1, 1870, he married Miss Amanda Parker, of Waterville, Wis., who bore him four children: Jessie, Etta E., Riley and Emma, only one of whom, Riley, is now living.

August 17, 1889, Mr. Humphrey was called upon to mourn the death of his wife. He is a republican in politics, and is justly proud of his services to his country.

Notes for David Humphrey:

Need to get more information concerning the adoption and marriage within the lineage of Ralph Ronald Brooks and the Humphreys. This is an interesting situation to make sense out of.

David Humphrey, farmer, P. O. Arkansas, Pepin county, was born at Hammond, St. Lawrence county, N. Y., January 12, 1843, a son of Abel R. and Julia Humphrey. When he was five years old the family removed to Auburn, N. Y., where he attended the common schools until he was seventeen years old. In 1862 he came to Waterville township, Pepin county, and purchased 120 acres of Wisconsin university lands, which he has since been engaged in breeding road horses.

November 30, 1873, he married Miss Melinda Ballard, daughter of Asiel Ballard, of Pepin.

Mrs. Humphrey died February 9, 1875. Mr. Humphrey married Mrs. Sarah Kennedy, daughter of John Mosher, April 16, 1890. In politics he was for many years a republican. Of late he has joined the prohibition movement. He has served his townsmen as town clerk and assessor, and for eight years past has been justice of the peace. He is a member of the Methodist church, a courteous gentleman and a highly respected citizen.

18. Historical & Biographical Album of the Chippewa Valley Wisconsin, 1891-2, Biographies: Abel Riley Humphrey, Waterville, Pepin Co., Wisconsin, Bio found on page 726, 726, Abel R. Humphrey (deceased) was born in Burke township, Caledonia county, Vt., February 1, 1804, and died in Waterville, in October, 1885. He was a son of Riley Humphrey. The family are descended from one of seven brothers who emigrated from England to America about 1725. Some of these brothers settled in Vermont and the others in Connecticut. Abel R. Humphrey was married about 1825 to Julia, daughter of David Stoddard, who was a native of Vermont. Both the Humphrey and Stoddard families have been noted for longevity. Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey were blessed with eight children: Rowana (Mrs. G. Brooks), Rosaline (Mrs. J. Ronald), Ellen (Mrs. G. Kirke), Sarah (Mrs. D. Cornell), Emeline (Mrs. H. Overing), La Fayette, David and Abel. Mrs. Humphrey died November 28, 1886. About 1839 Mr. Humphrey removed to St. Lawrence county, N. Y., where he engaged in lumbering. In 1848 he removed to Auburn, N. Y., and in 1862 he went to Arkansas, where he worked in a saw-mill and later at farming. He was an ardent patriot and a public spirited citizen. It was largely due to his efforts that a post-office was established there, and he was appointed the first postmaster, carrying the mail from Durand himself for the first three months. Politically he was a republican. He served as town treasurer, assessor and county registrar of deeds. - Transcribed from the "Historical & Biographical Album of the Chippewa Valley Wisconsin, 1891-2," page 726..
