Program Chairperson: Peggy Cooley presents:

Maureen Meade with "How to Develop a Personal Website"

Have you thought about having a family website, but didn't know where to begin? In this month's program, member Maureen Mead will show us, in baby steps, how to 'produce' a family or personal website. There are so many choices on the internet; it's hard to know which way to go, isn't it? Let Maureen point you in the right direction!

Maureen has been a member of the OGS for 2 years, and always contributes great ideas and news from the genealogy world at our meetings. She is a graphic designer and art director, and the Connecticut GenWeb website coordinator and the coordinator for Fairfield, Connecticut.

OGS President's Message from Norman Dodge, and V. President, Peggy Cooley:

Now that fall is officially here and the weather will be soon be rainy, it's a perfect time to stay inside and do some internet genealogy research.

I am out of position for this month. Right now I am in Denver, Colorado. I am headed for the East coast. I will be doing Genealogical research in Concord, NH, and Portland, ME, plus visiting extended family in the east.

There is a big Genealogical 75th Anniversary Seminar planned for SGS (Seattle Genealogical Society) in Seattle for November 1st.

The Olympia Library will be closed till approximately Dec 6th.

Message from Kathleen Newcomer, Membership Chairman:
