PURPOSE OF WSGS

The Washington State Genealogical Society

- Is a combination of individual members and local, county and regional genealogical organizations who share, by newsletter, journal, and internet, information about genealogical activities and resources.
- Promotes the preservation of and access to public and private genealogical and historical information.
- Sponsors an annual genealogical conference with nationally known speakers and mini-sessions with local speakers.
- Has Regional Representatives in each of its eight regions and conducts workshops and seminars in those regions.
- Publishes an annual research journal and a bi-monthly newsletter of state and national research activities, information and a calendar of events.

WSGS PROJECTS

- Centennial Pioneer Certificates
- Pioneer Certificates
- First Citizen Certificates
